“

This is Oliver and his camp counselor, Evan. Over the last 2 months the two of them became so close. I'd drop off Oliver- as early as I could everyday so he could be first camper in his group. He would run at full speed toward Evan and give him the hardest high five and hug. Evan spent so much of their free time playing catch or football with Oliver. It was clear how much Oliver adored him.

First he just said Evan reminded him of Uncle Damir- which is a huge compliment. Then one day he told me that when he grew up he wanted to be like Evan and explained why. I was so touched.

So I made Oliver a shirt to wear in the week of camp that says "When I grow up, I want to be like Evan." When I dropped him off at camp today, Evan teared up and said "I love this guy." At pick up today Evan asked if he could play catch with Oliver when he's back from college break.

It's so emotional even writing this. I'm so sad for Oliver on his last day of camp tomorrow. But I'm even more impacted by how close of a friend and a role model Evan was to Oliver.

The impact you will have working with children over the summer is so valuable. Our counselors are the primary reason our campers love Asphalt Green so much.
